

ABC Zoo

Short story

It's a special day at the ABC Zoo. A new animal is here.

'What's in it?'

'It's a zorilla from Africa. She needs a home.'

'Mmm, zorilla, eh? OK, let's find you a home.'

'Let's see. An aardvark, a boa constrictor, a coyote and a duck-billed platypus. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. An emu, a flamingo, a giraffe and a hyena. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. An impala, a jellyfish, a koala and a lemur. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. A meerkat, a narwhal, an orangutan and a puma. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. A quetzal, a rhea, a sloth and a tarantula. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. An umbrella bird, a vulture and a walrus. The zorilla doesn't go here.'

'Let's see. A xenops, a yak, a zorilla! Here's your home!'

'Sorry, boys!'

Listen to this story <https://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/en/short-stories/abc-zoo>

Contributors Story by Kim Ashmore

www.britishcouncil.org/learnenglishkids

© British Council, 2017 The United Kingdom's international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. We are registered in England as a charity.