

The Ramadan lantern story

1. What's the word?

Write the word under the pictures.

prince	unhappy	hungry	cold	bed	love
cry	window	princess	candle	sing	lantern

	prince

2. What's the order?

Watch the story and put the sentences in order.

1

- They came to a grand palace which belonged to a lonely ghoul.
- The ghoul sent the prince's pigeon home.
- The caliph's new wife was often unkind to the prince.
- Every man, woman and child held a candle and followed the caliph.
- The prince and his pet pigeon ran away into the jungle.
- When he woke up, he was surrounded by golden prison bars.
- The ghoul whispered, 'Your father deserves a second chance. Go back home.'
- The caliph knew that he had to follow the pigeon, but it was really dark.

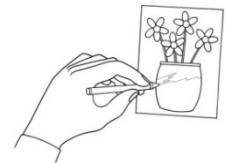

3. True or false?

Watch the story. Circle true or false for these sentences.

- a. The prince was very unhappy. true false
- b. He thought the ghoul might be asleep. true false
- c. The ghoul wanted to keep the prince as his friend. true false
- d. The pigeon raced to the ghoul's palace. true false
- e. He opened the window and found the pigeon sitting on the ledge. true false
- f. The caliph's sister suggested that everyone held a phone. true false
- g. The young prince was reunited with his teacher. true false
- h. Since that day children have bought lanterns for Ramadan. true false

4. Write and draw!

This story is about a tradition for Ramadan. What's your favourite story about a tradition in your country? Draw a picture and write about it!

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....