1. Match them up!

Match the types of books or stories and the definitions.

- fantasy story: a story which uses imaginary science or technology, for example robots, aliens or time machines
- mystery story: a story where some characters or abilities are impossible, for example a dragon or magical powers
- biography: an imaginary story but one which could happen in real life
- informational book: a story where something strange happens and the characters have to find the answer
- science fiction story: a book with facts about a topic, for example animals, science, history, etc.
- traditional story: a thin book which tells stories with pictures and some writing, and there is usually a new one every week
- realistic fiction story: a book about a real person's life
- historical fiction story: a thin book which has lots of articles and photographs, and there is usually a new one every week or month
- magazine: a story which is set in a real time in the past but the characters are invented or imagined
- comic: a story which has existed for a long time, for example a fairy tale or a myth

2. What do you like to read?

Children write what types of books they like to read in the correct group.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I like to read …</th>
<th>I don't like to read …</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3. Ask your friends!
Children use their own ideas to write questions. Then they ask the questions (maximum 10 people). They count how many people say yes. Then they make a chart from the answers, e.g.

Do you like fantasy stories? ✓✓✓✓✓✓✓ = 7

- fantasy stories: [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ]

4. Write and draw!
Children write about their favourite book and draw a picture of a character from it.
