

Old Scruffy Teddy

Here are a few of the toys that I like,
I've got a bat and a ball and a nice red bike.
This is a drum and it makes a loud sound,
But who's this lying on his back there on the ground?

It's old scruffy Teddy. He's been around for years.
His fur is thin, his leg is loose, he's lost one of his ears,
But when other toys may come and go,
He keeps on coming back, and I still love him so.

I have an electronic game, it's the latest craze.
I seem to be addicted, I've been playing it for days,
But soon enough I know that it will be like all the rest,
And Teddy will be waiting here because he's still the best.

He's been in the family for fifty-seven years.
He's been in all the children's beds and sent away their fears,
And when I'm grown and I have children too,
If they are frightened in the night, I know just what to do,

I'll give them old scruffy Teddy. He's been around for years.
His fur is thin, his leg is loose, he's lost one of his ears,
But when other toys may come and go,
He keeps on coming back, and still I love him so.
Mm Mm Mm Mm
Keeps on coming back, and I still love him so.
