

Patrizia's a pilot

Present simple and present continuous

Patrizia's a pilot

She flies planes every day

But now she's having lunch at home

She's on holiday!

Her husband Tom's a tailor

He makes jackets, shirts and ties

But now he's drinking juice with her

And eating chicken pies.

Normally they go to work

And come home late at night

But today they're in the garden

And they're flying their new kite.
