

Grammar test – Modals – could and couldn't – ANSWERS

1. Choose the correct sentence!

Read the sentences and underline the correct one.

- I could to walk when I was two.
- a. I could walk when I was two.
I could walking when I was two.
- b. My dad could make a cake when he was nine.
My dad could is make a cake when he was nine.
My dad could making a cake when he was nine.
- c. My mum couldn't swim when she was ten.
My mum couldn't swimming when she was ten.
My mum couldn't swim when she was ten.
- d. My friends could speak a little bit of English when they were five.
My friends could of speak a little bit of English when they were five.
My friends could to speak a little bit of English when they were five.
- e. My brother couldn't ride a bike when he was four.
My brother no could ride a bike when he was four.
My brother couldn't ride a bike when he was four.

2. Find the mistake!

Find the mistake, underline it and write the correct sentence.

- a. I could using a tablet when I was three. I could use a tablet when I was three.
- b. She couldn't to play the piano when she was five. She couldn't play the piano when she was five.
- c. My grandmother was could speak four languages. My grandmother could speak four languages.
- d. When could you saying 'hello' in English? When could you say 'hello' in English?
- e. Could you to swim when you were six? Could you swim when you were six?