

It's easy to click

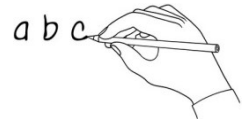

1. Match them up!

Match the words with the definitions.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| to browse | to have control of something |
| to discover | to speak honestly |
| bizarre | to look at different things online |
| to delete | very strange and unusual |
| to be in charge | very angry |
| to tell the truth | to find out about or learn something |
| mad | pleased and happy |
| glad | to remove something, for example a picture or words |

2. Fill it in!

Listen to the poem. Write the missing words in the sentences.

glad	easy	angry	world	strong	picture	afraid	fair
------	------	-------	-------	--------	---------	--------	------

- It's easy to click when you're browsing.
- The _____ is there to discover.
- You click on a link and it opens a _____.
- It's just not _____.
- Don't be _____.
- To tell the truth shows you're _____.
- You think they'll be _____.
- They'll be _____ that you told them.

3. What's the order?

Think about the poem. Put the words in the correct order.

- a. know People you are don't online. who always

People don't always know who you are online.

- b. discover online. funny We can things and cool

- c. open. the pictures delete you always You can't

- d. you pictures Some bad can give feeling. a

- e. something You tell is wrong. if should your parents

- f. are to tell scared truth. we Sometimes the

4. Match them up!

Listen to the poem. Match the words that rhyme, for example are and bizarre.

- | | |
|-------|--------|
| there | bad |
| wrong | knew |
| mad | fair |
| easy | think |
| link | funny |
| you | strong |
- An arrow points from the word 'there' to the word 'fair'.

5. Write and draw!

What do you do online? Draw a picture and write about it!

A large rectangular area with a dashed line border, intended for drawing and writing. Below the main drawing area, there are seven horizontal dashed lines for writing.