

New boy

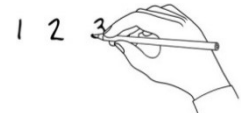

1. Match them up!

Match the words with the definitions.

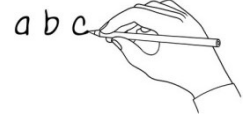

rude	→	it covers a person's or animal's body
to wonder		to look at someone for a long time
skin		not polite
to bother you		the front of the head (where the eyes, nose and mouth are) a face		the part at the end of an animal's body
shy		to ask yourself questions
to stare		to make you feel worried or upset
a tail		nervous and uncomfortable with other people

2. What's the order?

Listen to the poem. Put the sentences in order.

	I talked to him at break time.
	The classroom felt more exciting with the new boy.
1	A new boy joined the class.
	I didn't know why he had blue skin.
	We found out we have the same name.
	Everyone looked at him.
	He was staring at us.
	He didn't know why we had long tails.

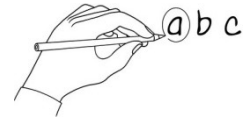

3. Fill it in!

Think about the poem. Write the missing words in the sentences.

friend	different	talk	exciting	stare
--------	-----------	------	----------	-------

- Sometimes we meet people who are different from us.
- It isn't nice to _____ at people.
- It's _____ when people are different.
- It's nice to _____ to people who are new.
- You might make a new _____.

4. Choose the answer!

Listen to the poem. Circle the word that doesn't rhyme.

For example, today doesn't rhyme with Jude and rude.

- mine
 blue fine

- place face world

- new shy cry

- round ground too

- same friends name

5. Write and draw!

Can you think of some other ways of being different? Draw a picture and write about them!

A large rectangular area for drawing and writing, bounded by an orange line. At the bottom of this area, there are seven horizontal dotted lines for writing.
