

Digital citizenship - ANSWERS

Level 3

What do you know about digital citizenship? Practise your reading in English with this text.

Reading practice

Preparation

Match the words with the definitions.

- | | | |
|-------------|---|---|
| responsible | → | to hurt someone or make them feel bad again and again |
| safe | → | to act in a particular way |
| respect | → | having good judgement, acting correctly, making good decisions |
| to behave | → | politeness and care about someone's feelings |
| permission | → | being allowed to do something |
| to bully | → | to believe that someone or something is good and honest |
| careful | → | not dangerous |
| to trust | → | paying attention so that you don't make a mistake or have an accident |

1. Where does it go?

Write the ideas in the correct groups.

keep their passwords secret	open emails from strangers
trust everyone and everything online	ask if it's OK before posting someone's photo
give personal information online	forward nasty messages
tell an adult if someone's being bullied	think about how their comment will make someone feel

Things good digital citizens do	Things good digital citizens don't do
keep their passwords secret tell an adult if someone's being bullied ask if it's OK before posting someone's photo think about how their comment will make someone feel	trust everyone and everything online give personal information online open emails from strangers forward nasty messages

2. Fill it in!

Complete the sentences.

online	passwords	responsible	download
personal information	disagree	permission	digital citizens

- Digital citizens know how to use the internet in a responsible way.
- Don't give personal information, for example the name of your school.
- Create strong, secure passwords and keep them secret.
- Ask someone's permission before you post photos of them online.
- It's OK to disagree with someone online, but always be polite.
- Don't say something online that you wouldn't say in real life.
- Don't download apps without asking an adult.
- Spending time online can be great if we're good digital citizens.