I'm too ill

1. What's the word?
Write the word under the pictures.

```
sleep       drink       dad       sore throat       medicine headache    tummy ache  earache   doctor          high temperature
```

```
sleep
```

2. Match them up!
Watch the story and match the sentences.

- Have a drink.
- Here is some medicine.
- Medicine?
- I'm calling the doctor.
- High temperature!
- Good morning, Dad!
- No, I'm too ill.
- I'm too ill to see the doctor.
- I'm too ill to drink.
- I feel much better now!
- I'm too ill to take it.
- Take this medicine.
3. Make it right!

Watch the story. Find the mistake, underline it and write the correct word.

a. I’m too ill to play.  ___________ sleep

b. Siriwat had a fever.  ___________

c. Next morning he had a cough.  ___________

d. By midday Siriwat had a cold.  ___________

e. By evening he had toothache.  ___________

f. The teacher arrived.  ___________

g. Take this water.  ___________

h. I feel much worse now!  ___________

4. Write and draw!

What should you do when you’ve got a sore throat, headache, tummy ache or earache? Draw a picture and write about it!

........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................
........................................................................