

Syrian refugee family - ANSWERS

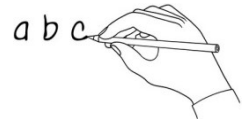

1. Match them up!

Match the words with the definitions.

a war	→	a small metal object that comes out of a gun
violent	→	a weapon that explodes and hurts people or damages buildings
a bomb	→	fighting between two or more countries or groups
a bullet	→	to arrive in a new place and start to live there to settle	→	hurting or killing people intentionally
a school captain	→	a language spoken mainly in Western Asia and North Africa
Arabic	→	the time when there is no fighting or attacks
peace	→	a pupil who is chosen to represent the school and the other pupils

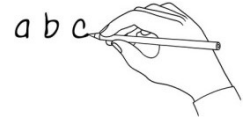

2. Fill it in!

Watch the video. Complete the sentences.

bombs	journey	peace	change	war	settled	safer	school captain
-------	---------	-------	--------	-----	---------	-------	----------------

- Sara and her classmates started school in Australia after a long journey from Syria.
- A war began in Syria in 2011.
- Millions of Syrian people have left in search of a safer life.
- In Youssef's village some houses fell down because of bombs and bullets.
- In the past year almost 4,500 Syrian children have settled in Australia.
- Starting a new life has been a big change for these children.
- Youssef is the school captain and arrived three years ago.
- Youssef hopes he can visit Syria again one day, once peace returns.

3. Where does it go?

Watch the video. Who says it? Write these sentences in the correct group.

I went to the Opera House.	I felt free.	I can go to school and play with my friends.
The school is bigger here in Australia.		The teachers were nice to me.
Here in this school we can learn Arabic.	We don't want wars.	I would like to be a doctor.

Sara	Youssef
I went to the Opera House. I felt free. I can go to school and play with my friends. I would like to be a doctor.	The school is bigger here in Australia. The teachers were nice to me. Here in this school we can learn Arabic. We don't want wars.

4. Write and draw!

Children write about what they can do to help new children who start going to their school, especially if they come from another country, and draw a picture.

